Headline:
A dry cloudy start, but with rain spreading in.

Today:
A dry, chilly start with some patchy mist and fog in places. Rain spreading east across the area into the afternoon with strengthening winds. This clears into the early evening to leave clear spells and some isolated showers. Maximum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Tonight:
Largely dry and clear for many into the evening and overnight, with isolated showers dying away and temperatures falling to give a widespread frost. Minimum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Tuesday:
A dry, frosty start Tuesday but turning very windy through the afternoon, with rain spreading to all parts. Becoming drier during the evening as rain clears but staying windy. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Winds remaining strong into Wednesday but likely easing by Thursday. Conditions remaining unsettled with further showers or more prolonged rain at times but some bright spells.
